... We must not lose control at the discovery that would let everybody see we were meant to be

... And now we must set new goals

We know not what awaits us

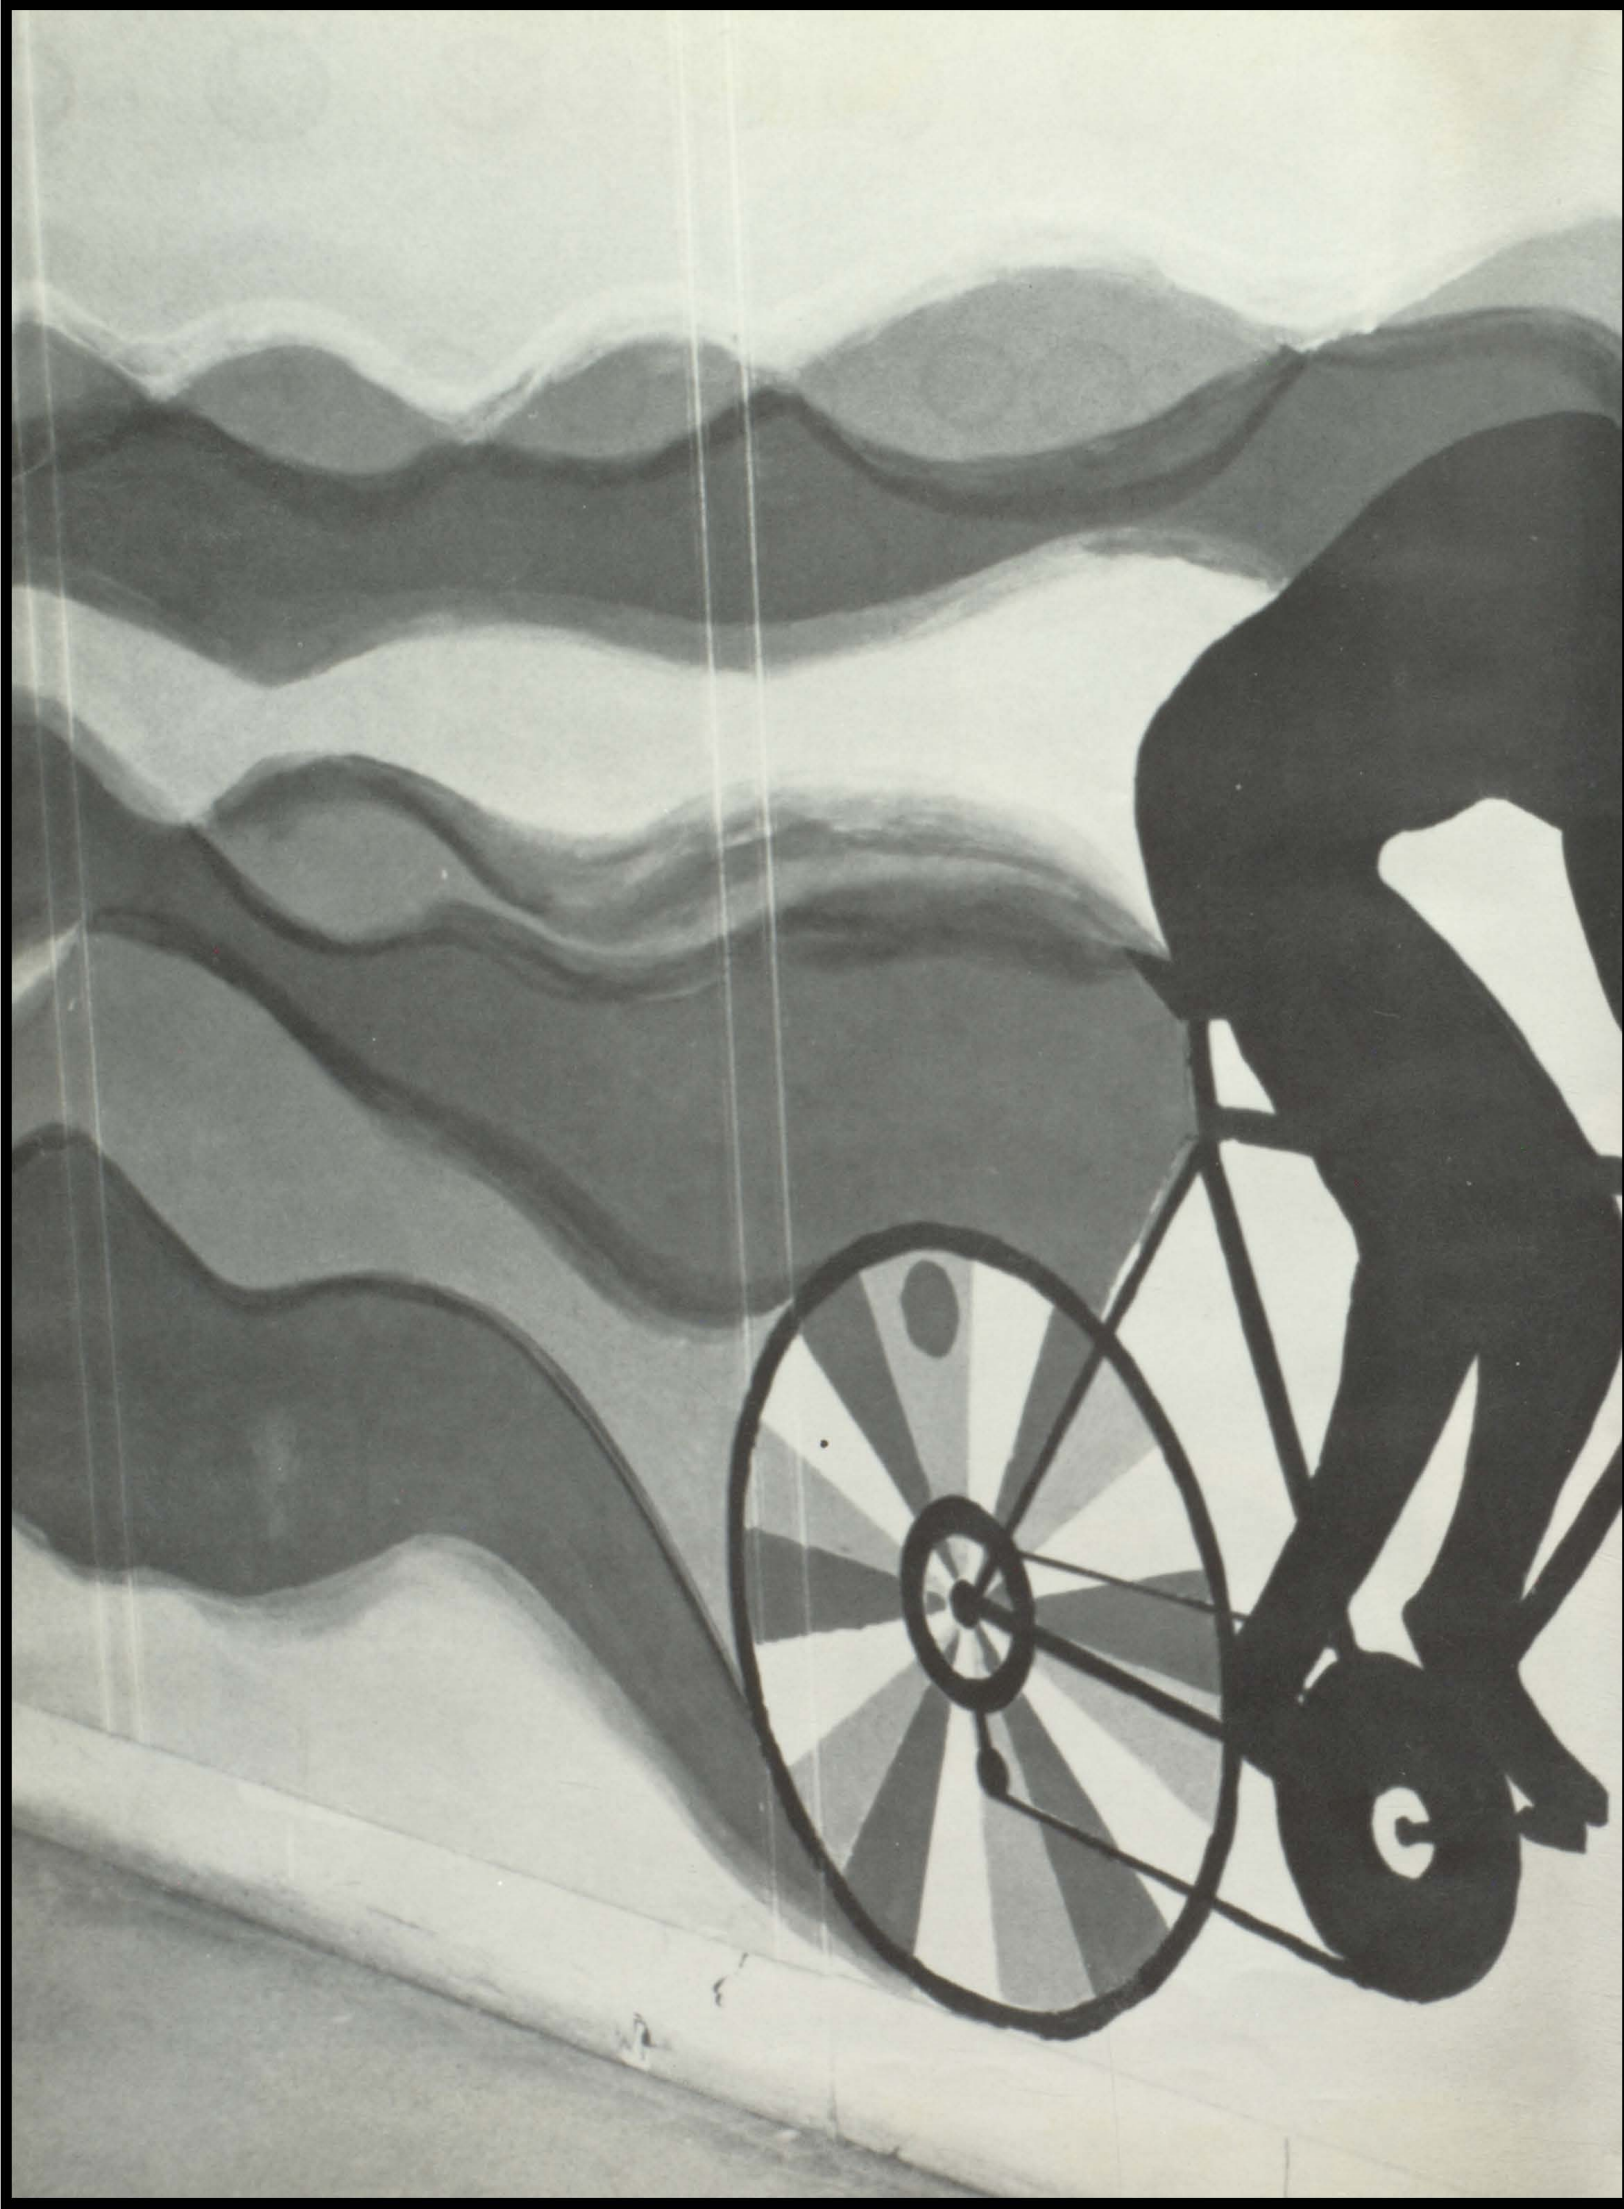

To whom will life be kind
Upon whom shall it frown

WE SHALL
FROM THE
CUP OF JOY

... And who shall drink from the cup of tears

Career Day

Alma mater-Chicago
Looking back a few short years
When we made our plans and played the cards the way they fell.
Clinging to our confidence
We stood on the threshold of the goal that we knew,
And though we had our fights
Had our short tempered nights
It couldn't pull our dreams apart.
All our needs and all our wants
Drawn together in our hearts,

We felt it from the very start.
It's all happened recently
Everything is going fine
And now we must set brand new goals,
We must not lose control of the possibility of the discovery
That would let everybody see that we were just meant to be.

To Momma

As a Mother, you tried to tell me the way of the world.
 But as a child,
 I had to find our for myself.
 I understand now,
 Momma.
 I see things the way they are.
 It hurts, Momma.
 It hurts to know I'm all alone.
 My days seem lonely.
 My nights seem lonelier.
 I try to dream of a bit of happiness,
 But, Momma,
 There is none left-
 At least none that was meant for me.
 I tried, Momma.
 Trying gets me nowhere.
 I'm tired now, Momma.
 I think I'll call it a day.
 I know, Momma.
 You say,
 "Keep on going 'cause things will get better"
 'Tis easier said, than done.
 You tried, Momma.
 But I was too grown,
 And too damned smart!
 Now I'm paying for it.
 Paying the hard way.
 Well, that's part of life too.
 Isn't it, Momma?
 Paying the hard way?
 You paid,
 And you never gave up.
 I am a part of you,
 And I'll never give up.
 I owe my strength to you.
 I owe thanks-
 All to you, Momma.

A large, stylized graphic of a mountain peak composed of the word 'ACTIVITIES' repeated many times, set against a dark, starry background. The word 'ACTIVITIES' is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The letters are arranged in a way that they form the silhouette of a mountain, with the peak at the top and the base at the bottom. The background is a dark, textured surface with numerous small, white, star-like specks, suggesting a night sky or a celestial theme. The overall composition is symmetrical and visually striking.
